

Father Shot; Mother Wounded as They Poach For Christmas Trees

ELYRIA, O. Dec. 24.—An 84-year-old man with a long white "Santa Claus" beard sat on an iron jail cell last night and told authorities of the Christmas tree slaying of William Rousseau, 37-year-old unemployed trucker.

"The tree was for the asking," said the prisoner, Farmer William Case said. "I never refused to give a tree to anyone when people steal them it's different."

Rousseau was shot and killed and his wife critically wounded by Case when they stole their rickety automobile, a small piece taken from Case's farm, Sheriff Carl E. Finegan said.

Sheriff said Rousseau's wounds Mr. Rousseau, 29, was brought to a hospital here, where after a blood transfusion he was given a "50-50 chance to live." The latter was Sheriff Finegan.

SLAYER TALKS FREELY

Case talked freely to newsmen about the killing.

"I have lost about 200 Christmas trees this year to thieves," he said, indicating he would make a statement to the sheriff when investigating deputies have been filed.

At the Rousseau home in nearby Grafton, two children, Gertrude, 10, and Donald, 7, waited vainly for return of their parents.

Only their grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Dahn, 69, told reporters: "Papa and Mama may not come back."

Termites, more or less common,

Place Honor Found For Standards Lowered At Vimy Memorial Base

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—A piece of honor has been found for the standards which were lowered over the tomb, at the base of the Vimy Ridge memorial, when the Canadian flag was lowered yesterday on July 26, 1936. These have found a repository in the entrance to the cemetery where the Canadian dead were buried.

A modest item in the historic relics of Canada that two flags are now flying over the Vimy Ridge.

King Edward VIII functioned in an international ceremony, and the first time a British monarch ascended the stone rood at Vimy.

Government bulletin and dispatched General Franco's long-awaited offensive had begun.

Two of the general armies had been in action since the beginning of Spain's civil war were locked in desperate combat today in the snow-covered mountains of northern

Spain. Throughout the stirring ceremony two and a half years ago the standards, borne by veteran war veterans from Canada, flanked the stone cross where the figure of Christ stands, mourning the Canadian dead. They were lowered yesterday by a group of pilgrims who attended that ceremony, and presented to the government, and presented to the government. They have now been deposited in the entrance to the memorial chamber, and a small plaque, which recalls the ceremony, is to be placed in the Vimy Ridge cemetery.

Gag Gets Only 37 Free Drinks

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—Raymond Overmire sipped up to the bar in one after another of Elgin's forty taverns and said:

"At the Rousseau home in nearby Grafton, two children, Gertrude, 10, and Donald, 7, waited vainly for return of their parents."

Only their grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Dahn, 69, told reporters: "Papa and Mama may not come back."

"I said 'give me a drink' and you gave me one. Get it!"

It worked admirably until Overmire made a return trip to tavern No. 1 on the last leg, thinking it was No. 38.

No. 38 Overmire is cultivating his memory in the county jail.

The Dame De Seik, Queen of the Island of Sark in the English chan-

Grey-haired and very gentle-looking for an autocrat, the Dame De Seik said she never had been a murder or a divorce among her people, and she could not find any sign of poverty or unemployment. What is more, on the Island of Sark there are no military posts, roads, railroads, motor cars, motor planes, or labor unions.

ON TOWNSHIP, Dec. 24.—Broken bodies recovered over a 60-acre area indicated today seven men were probably killed in the night in the explosion and crash of a twin-motored United States army bomber two miles southeast of here.

Major W. E. Clegg, operations officer at Maxwell field, Montgomery, Ala., said a stamp was found in the wreckage and that at least seven persons were killed. The plane was en route to Montgomery, N.Y., from Hamilton
Field, Calif.

The terrible explosion shook many houses in the area.

Frank Glass, Uniontown business man, said clothes were blown from parts of the plane and he expressed the opinion "the plane exploded before it hit the ground."

Major and Minor Notes

By JOHN OLIVER

During the Christmas season one's thoughts cannot be dissociated from carols. In the pre-Christmas period, in the programs and in church services, the musical form plays a prominent part. Despite the musical simplicity, carols retain an unusual place in the hearts of the public and such favorites as "Silent Night," "Holy Night," "Anton Fidèles, Ark."

to carols, would appear to confirm this idea. Carol singing is of great antiquity among Christians. One of the earliest known carols is said to be Aurelius Prudentius, dating from the fourth century. This poem, in 29 stanzas, beginning "Quid est carolus aeternum carolus?"

Carols seem to have made their way into England almost with the introduction of Christianity, or at all events, before the end of the sixth century. Holly, ivy and mistletoe were soon adopted to the festivities, as shown by the following well-known example:

The holly and the ivy
Noh both doth well grow.
Of all the trees that spring in wood.

The holly bears the crown
Another traditional example in the same strain begins:

Gothen be thy holly,
Ivy and mistletoe shine;

With it entwined.

In Norman times, carols were sung in England by roving minstrels. These often took a narrative form, tales dwelling at great length upon legendary embellishments of the birth of Christ and with the Saviour's birth not to be found in any of the Gospels. The first known printed book of carols was made by Wynkyn de Worde in 1511, but these were not Christmas carols, and it was in that collection that the famous "Boar's Head Carol" first appeared. In the 14th and 15th centuries, carols were both serious and humorous. There is an old tune dating from about that period which might be sung in words of either character, according to the observance of the Christmas season. At one time, too, there were both summer and winter carols.

In later times carols were written in Latin and English. In 1650 there appeared a publication entitled "Certaine Devotions to be said in Latin and English carols fitted to the most essemene tunes everywhere familiar." The first of the early examples of carols as the word is now understood was "Wise Men of the West" or "Mary Fare," a traditional piece of writing dating from the 14th century. A portion of this script is preserved in the British Museum and shows the unshelled oysters which were eaten at the publication of the English language, though still referred to Latin. "Wise Men of the West," was just beginning to assert itself.

Another delightful old specimen, taken from a miracle play of the 15th century, is the "Entry Carol," called because the performance of the play took place at Coventry. It is "Hilfe my child," and the following curious directions are given for the singing of the piece:

They were rich, but he was poor.
They were poor, but he was rich.
Mary comforted him and Gabrial appeared, saying, "Thou art the King of Heaven."

After the Restoration, carols became widely popular in England and Scotland, and in the same time that the practice of singing them to herald the Christmas season has been encouraged. Even as early as December, choirs throughout the civilized world begin to practice the carols, and sing them about the joyous spirit which these delightful compositions bring. The atmosphere in which they should really be sung in the open air, following the example of that first glorious day, can be easily imagined, and have greatly exceeded the finest earthly harmony. It is now-a-days that this can be carried out only to a limited extent, for many reasons and consequently Christmas carols and other appropriate music are becoming more

A very fine early example, containing an extraordinary mixture of Latin and English, in rhyme, is the melodious "In Paris Jubilee." First published in 1780, the carol is even described as "very ancient song for Christmas Eve" and seems to have been written in Latin. The tune was used by Bach for one of his best known chorale-preludes. It was also adapted to "Good Christian Gentlemen" by Palestrina, and taken much too fast to these words to bring out the dignity of the lovely melody, which breathes through the words of such joyful joy at the Saviour's birth.

Another example containing words of Latin and English is "Puer nobis natus es Maria Virgo." Another well-known carol, "The Holly and the Ivy," which bears the crown

Another traditional example in the same strain begins:

Gothen be thy holly,

makes a splendid concluding item to a gift or a present by a choir or body of singers and it is a favorite practice to use it in this way.

On Tuesday evening last members of the Edmonton Mail Vocal Choir gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. MacDonald, 9844 89 Avenue, for the conclusion of their annual Christmas carol tour. Their hosts home song "Silent Night, Holy Night," outside the house. Their annual Christmas tree was held at All Saints' parish hall. A silent auction was held and when Santa Claus arrived, a fine array of presents were distributed among the members. Mrs. Williams, C. Tough, Charles Fawcett, E. Ratcliffe, M. H. Williams, G. G. Monkman Pass
Group Planning
$30,000 Drive

VANCOUVER, Dec. 24.—The Monkman Pass Highway Association plans a membership drive in coast cities for $30,000 to complete the highway from the Columbia River district to Hazelton, B.C., where it will join the British Columbia highway system.

The association was made Friday by Francis Murphy, of Prince George, B.C., president of the association, and D. E. Harris, director. The $30,000 will, of course, only give a dirt road, but it will be completed in time to carry a lot of ordinary traffic and will amply demonstrate the entire feasibility of the route, Mr. Murphy said.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Dec. 24.—Premier Mitchell Hepburn issued a message to the Ontario people last night declaring many nations are "making a mockery of that ancient custom of Christmas."

He urged the people of Canada and of other democratic countries to think twice before they vote.

"There is a challenge, I feel, in the observance of Christmas this year, a challenge to us who value our freedom and our democracy," he said.

"It is a challenge that we must meet if democracy is to survive. Christmas is a great democratic institution, based on the principles of true democracy."

Peace On Earth
Goodwill To Men

AND there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Then came the angel from God, and he said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

It came to pass, as the angel departed from them, that the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord has made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger.

When they had seen this, they made known every where this word concerning this child; and all that heard it wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem, saying,

Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the East, and are come to worship him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all his chief priests and scribes together, he asked them where the Christ should be born.

And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for so it is written by the prophet,

And thou, Bethlehem, land of Judah, thou art not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come a ruler who shall be the shepherd of my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them悉 the time exactly when the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may also come and worship him.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the East, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him.

And when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Now when Herod saw that he was mocked of the wise men, he was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all that region, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had enquired of the wise men.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah,

Behold, the voice of a cry in the land, weeping, and shouting, saying, O mother, O mother, we have killed thy son, O mother, O mother, we have slain thy son.

And he was overcome with grief for the people.

And when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of God appeared in a dream to Joseph in Bethlehem,

Say not thou to thyself, Fear not to take up and go into Egypt, thou and thy son, and thy daughter;

for I will send my angel before thee, that thou mayest be brought to safety.

And he rose up, and took the young child and his mother, and came into Egypt, and abode in Egypt until the death of Herod: which thing was the fulfilment of the prophecy of Hosea,

Out of Egypt have I called my son.

When Herod was dead, behold, an angel of God appeared in a dream to Joseph in Bethlehem,

Say not thou to thyself, Fear not to take up and go into Israel, thou and thy son, and thy daughter;

for I will send my angel before thee, that thou mayest be brought to safety.

And he rose up, and took the young child and his mother, and came into Israel:

and when he heard that Herod was dead, he went into Galilee, and found Jesus, and his mother, Mary, in Nazareth, in Galilee.

And he knew him not; and he was惊奇地 said to his mother, Behold, this is thy son, Jesus, who is called Christ.

And Mary said unto him, Son, thou art called Christ; but who am I, that my son should be called Christ?

And Jesus said unto her, See thou that I am not bound to thee, but to my Father.

And he went out, and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that so it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, He shall be called a Nazarene.

Answer: Archery. The word "toxophilite" comes from two Greek words and means "love of the bow." In 1761, in England, a group of archery enthusiasts organized the Royal Toxophilite Society, and it is still in existence.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

Crystal Balling
Tied To Wheat
Just Roaming

In ANOTHER week we will bury 1938—forty fathoms deep if the moment takes place at sea as usual. That fact brings a handful of questions as to what is to come and that for the year. One of these questions interests me for the answer to it will be known how western Canada will fare in 1939.

The question is this: What was the most important development in Canada up to 1938? We begin with Til narrow that down to western Canada owing to increase of inside funds in the east. My answer is that the most important development is the rapid swing toward sports requiring big budgets—expenses running as high as $22,000 for one club in the case of football.

This trend toward football has started with football. As near as I can discover, it cost approximately $65,000 to operate the four-team Western Conference this season—and no club was losing money around Christmas.

Now senior hockey, already moving steadily into big money, looks a heading position in Saskatchewan and Alberta and we can't wait to see what will happen in 1939. I would estimate at least five figures. It has been estimated that the Alberta Senior League teams will draw a total of $150,000 this season in league games. Right now it looks as if the seven clubs in the loop will require the biggest part of a hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

What about golf and tennis? As far as the two biggest incomes in the western picture, the trend toward big money ventures is becoming evident.

The one problem is whether or not these heavy overheads can be maintained, or if they are maintained if it will mean disaster for other sports. The west has had cycles before in which it paid big money for favorite sports and most of them were short and snappy. The new big money money sports are not yet in a position to sustain themselves. It is to be seen by how far club representatives of large sections of the various cities. No dividends will be distributed and profits will go into a reserve. This gives the boom a better chance to continue.

The answer to the future lies chiefly in how good business becomes, or remains, if you prefer to put it that way. When wheat prices have made big money sports doubtful for Saskatchewan next season, although money is available for football again, the west will pay however seems to have killed Saskatchewan's growing dreams of conference football. It has also started a movement for a revival of the Western Canada Baseball League.

Just Roaming At Large

REPORTS from the Manitoba junior-hockey circles give the impression that the clubs in that province expect the E.A.C. to smash through to the western championship this season. Coach Levy Grove of the E.A.C. will be given a warm welcome when the team begins its road to the west. The answer to the question is that the E.A.C. has been anything but encouraging. The team is a long ways from the hockey it should be.

Now comes the question: What will happen in Vancouver? Wenzel will fight Lorenzo Pedro, California light heavyweight, in Vancouver next month. The would-be promoters in Vancouver haven't been able to promote so much as a preliminary bout despite optimistic talk of a $100,000 purse.

What about the west? Boxing might be reduced considerably because of the depression and its southward turning trend. This is just further proof that golf can be played just as well from the left side as the right.

Catching Up With the Mail

CAN FAN: Sorry, but you guessed wrong. My reference in this column some days ago to an amateur who was afraid of a passing himself out in the middle of a game over the radio was a bit of a fib. I was not levitated at an Edmonton radio station. The man in question is a well-known who has sold, if ever, played in Edmonton. There were several mix-ups over ringtone tests caused by theatre officials insisting at the last minute on a drastic rearrangement of all seats on the stage to satisfy some red tape regulation.

"Please don't be angry with me," said the man. "I was just going to you as soon as I can dig out from under the Christmas mail."

Kid Niede, Mountain Park: Glad to get your note. Present indications are that the fight business here will continue good after New Year's festivities. Date for the next big card here hasn't been set yet.

Bob Pecky, a former boxer, is back in Edmonton after a long absence in 1935, which was the same day on which I last saw him. He is in the ring in Calgary as a result of his fight with Arthur Pecky. You're right, Pecky was a Canadian, born at Chatham, Ontario. His right name was Pecky. By a coincidence an Edmonton man who ten days ago bet on a bet on this same question of dates, Hope you enjoy your Christmas. Chet Tait was definitely accepted as the lightweight champion of Canada. His record had more knockouts in it than the average heavyweight scores nowadays.

Peg Sprint Ace Lands In Belfast

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Dec. 21—Violet Mac Monteith, 16, winner of a sprint stenographer competition, has started her studies at a school for the daughters of Adair to start a new life here with her winter-born parents.

"For my best part of springtime she has been here," said Mrs. Mac Monteith, "and when I've looked around here I'll see about making a bid for records on the track. I'm still in training and I'm not giving up the track just yet."

American Youth Losers If Nazi Sport Film Banned

British United Press, Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—The other night I saw the finest motion picture I have ever seen, and you mustn't dismiss my opinion lightly, because as a man who dates back to John Bunny, Flora Finch, Broken Blossoms, and Birth of a Nation, I am equally qualified to speak.

The picture I saw was the one that Heribert Hirsch, a noted Leibknecht, took to the Olympic Games held in Berlin in 1936. It is a picture of that country have ever seen, and it is a picture that I have heard that it was because of the anti-Nazi bent of the film. The showing I saw was a private screening—a sort of sneak preview.

I am not in favor of any such screening, but the film, I think, is propaganda, but the magnificent filming of the greatest meeting of athletes in the history of the world. If it is to be the youth of this country, the youth of the world, that it consists of German propaganda. The showing I saw was a private screening—a sort of sneak preview.

LETHBRIDGE WINS RIOTOUS GAME 5-2

SP BULLETIN

Lethbridge Players Here For Xmas Special

Lethbridge Maple Leafs will make their second appearance of the season on Edmonton Ice Monday afternoon when they meet Edmonton Eskimos in a scheduled game of the Senior Alberta League. The fast-stepping leaders of the "Big Seven" chalked up another win last night over the Calgarians, 5-2. They are getting so far in front that the members of the league will have to humble them soon or they will never catch up.

Shown above are some of the main cogs in the Lethbridge machine. Bob McIsaac, the star player, is the top center. Young is to his right. Hin is in sensational style. One of the main reasons that Leafs are so far out in front is the lad shown at top centre right, Coach Freddie Loughlin, who has been working hard over his squad and feels that they are just about due to step out and win more than the odd game. The two players shown at top left and bottom right are the ones who develop winning plays is shown by Leafs position in the league standing. Over on top right is a defenseman who spends most of his time on the opposition's net. Kenny Stewart, a former Edmonton boy who is now with the Kootenays.

In their first appearance here, Lethbridge Leafs chalked up a 4-2 victory over the Lethbridge coached penties and are confident of retaining their winning streak. The penties are in a bind again the Eskimos.

Loughlin has been working hard over his squad and feels that they are just about due to step out and win more than the odd game.

When they start going they'll be hard to stop. Eads feels that Monday is the day.

The game will get under way at 8:00 p.m.

Revived Canadians After Maple Leaf Scalars Sunday

HUTTON BRIGHT STAR OF BRITISH SPORT YEAR

Walker Cup Victory Makes Golf History

By JACK BRAYLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LYNDON, Dec. 23.—A cricketer with a prolific bat appropriately enough was the star turn of Great Britain's sports whirl in 1938, a year marked by records on land, insects on the turf and the winning of the Walker Cup by British golfers for the first time.

Bells pealed in his native village of Pudsey, Yorkshire, and cricket pushed world news off the front pages when Len Hutton, 22, lambasted everything Australian bowlers offered.

His total of 301 runs was record in 64 years of Test Cricket between England and Australia. He was the Grand National Steeplechase-winner, was won by the United States entry, Battledore. The race was marred by a fall of the track, which left Canadian jumper owned by H. R. H. in 1938. Hutton's captain, Walter H. Mannion, had held the record for 10 years, and the record against New Zealand in 1938.

ASHES DOWN UNDER

But the Ashes—nickname for the elusive prize for the world series of cricket—will stay down under because the old English team, which was 100 to 1 on the odds, won 179 runs more than the 100 of the Australian team. The other match, decided for Manchester, was rainfall.

Even at that English fans were not reassured, for Hutton's batting and the English eleven's great fifth and sixth wickets, which brought the Ashes back to England, were not up to the 1938 runs scores posted upon the new record.

England also started the year by taking the hopes of experts and failing to top the list at the Empire Games, which were held in Canada.

England's best golfer, C. H. Holmes, started the year with a 100 yards to start victories in the 100 yards for a golf record, and 87 seconds in the 220-yard dash.

PRESTIGE RESTORED

But prestige was restored in August at Moulton Park, Surrey, when George S. Snyder, C. Woodman, finished in new world records for the half-mile and mile.

Twenty-six years old and 124 pounds, Woodman gave five men sprints ranging from 10 to 85 yards, and 100 yards to start. In five yards of the 85-yard man and crossed the tape in 1:49.2. His 86-second mile was the best ever by an Englishman, and 87 seconds at 100 yards at Princeton in 1938 and the 860-yard mark held jointly by Jack McEvoy and the best Eddie Phillips on a foul.

The downfall of Benny Lynch, the British boxing champion, was the British boxing world's tragedy. He was booted at a championship fight and was beaten by a man of twice his weight. He won that fight but later lost to Peter Kain and finally to Eddie Muller, by Aurel Tombi, a scoundrel, laying a blow to his nursing home trying to regain his strength and he hopes to come back.

HOCKEY HIGHLIGHTS

British records that were watched by the world's aquiline fans, walked off with a quantum of golf, turf features, and a good odds too, railbirds found consolation in the record for the fastest Cuckoo, fast fly, Rossetti. Winning the Oaks and the 1,000 Guineas, she was

ENTRIES IN RING

The Lonsdale Hall emblematic of British heavyhanded boxing was won by Len Hutton, the lumbering Cornishman when Tommy Fair gets around to the 1939 ring. Tommy lost the belt but he hasn't yet turned it in. Meantime, he has a new one, from Jack McEvoy and the best Eddie Phillips on a foul.

The downfall of Benny Lynch, the British boxing champion, was the British boxing world's tragedy. He was booted at a championship fight and was beaten by a man of twice his weight. He won that fight but later lost to Peter Kain and finally to Eddie Muller, by Aurel Tombi, a scoundrel, laying a blow to his nursing home trying to regain his strength and he hopes to come back.

OLERS PENNED IN

Olers were penned inside their own blue line most of the time. The halfway mark Bill Wright made a wide-ring walk to Bob Kennedy who shifted fast to score for Mittens. Reg Bentley of Driftwood was serving a prison sentence for a fine he got for the little Duluth netman who had an off-night against Lethbridge Leafs Wednesday.

With 700 points, Eddie O'Keefe and "Proud" Brooks can in two goals each and Bob Alger and Defensemen, Miss Superior, etc. etc. others.

Olers jumped into a commanding lead with 1,000 points, but met three goals within as many minutes in the second period. They rallied home two more in the third period, but the "professionals" that were largely absent at goal-scoring, were the Gordon brothers, who had a fine night.

Eddie O'Keefe, a late player, sized a shot just inside the blue line.

Davidson, who had to make a short start from Martinson in the final minutes of regulation time, in the final minute Reg Bentley lost an offside and the goal was his.

Merchants ReportChristmas Sale*Hi High Level

Current sales for gifts and general necessities are high and steady, though there is a tendency to relax, according to reports reaching the Edmonton Chamber of

But adverse weather conditions have caused a slight loss in sales, it was indicated. John Blue observed sales figures effected due to the severe weather, but said that sales were good for Christmas shopping and in the general level it being

With the open nights the shopping suggested for the retail trade, the Chamber was well ahead, he added.

CHRISTMAS! MERRY CHRISTMAS! A TIME OF PEACE, GOOD WILL, AMNESTY—FOR WHOM? NOT FOR THE WEAK AND HELPLESS WHO PRAY FOR PEACE IN VAIN—NOT FOR DEFENSELESS SOULS DRIVEN LIKE CHAFF BEFORE THE MURDEROUS MIGHT OF THOSE WHO SNEER WEAKNESS AND BATTEON ON IT—NOT A TIME OF PEACE FOR LITTLE ANNIE—

GEE! LOOK, SANDY! ISN'T THAT PRETTY? THAT CHRISTMAS TREE ALL LIGHTED UP—AND TH' KIDS GETTIN' PRESENTS—THEY SURE ARE HAPPY—AND THEIR FOLKS... EVEN HAPPIER—

AND TH' GRANDPARENTS WATCHIN' IN HILARIOUS REMEMBRIN'—THE KIDS CHRISTMAS MEANS NEW TOYS MOSTLY... BUT TO OLD FOLKS IT MEANS SO MUCH, MUCH MORE, I GUESS—

THEY'VE GOT PEACE, SAFETY, HAPPINESS -- NOBODY HUNTING THEM AND READY TO KILL 'EM ON SIGHT... LOOK: SHOT-GUN IN TH' CORNER--- HA! AND LOADED, TOO, I'LL BET, JUST IN CASE—THEY'LL HAVE PEACE, OR ELSE!

OH, WELL! C'MON, SANDY! THAT'S NOT OUR PARTY—I SAW A PLACE DOWN TH' ROAD ALL LIGHTED UP---ROAD HOUSE, I GUESS—WE MIGHT GET A MEAL THERE--- I'VE GOT MONEY TO BUY IT---

OH! OH! LOOK! AXEL AND HIS GANG SITTING DOWN TO CHRISTMAS DINNER--- OH, WELL—IT'S CHRISTMAS FOR PEOPLE LIKE THAT TOO, O' COURSE---SHH-H-

WELL, MERRY CHRISTMAS, EH? SOON NOW WE WILL HAVE THE VICTORY—

THEN THE RANSOM! HA! THE GREAT AND POWERFUL WARBUCKS, RENDERED POWERLESS BY SENTIMENT—

YES—SOON WE SHALL CAPTURE THE BRAT!

BAH! SENTIMENT! IT IS POWER THAT WINS ALL—COLD AND CALCULATING POWER—

ALL RIGHT, YOU BIRDS—COME OUT HERE—WANT TO TALK TO YOU—WHO ARE YOU? WHAT'S YOUR BUSINESS?

AH! IT IS THE STATE POLICE—CERTAINLY! WE GLADLY EXPLAIN—

OF COURSE—THE GENDARMES—they HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW—

HA! LOOK! THE WINDOW'S UNLOCKED—THEY'LL TALK THEIR WAY OUT OF ANYTHING—BUT WE'VE GOT FIVE MINUTES 'FORE THEY GET BACK—

O.K.—I GUESS YOU GUYS ARE ALL RIGHT—BUT WE HAD TO BE SURE—SORRY TO HAVE INTERRUPTED YOUR DINNER—

AH, THAT IS QUITE ALL RIGHT—YES—THE LAW MUST COME FIRST.

EH-H? AXEL! HERE! LOOK! GONE!

GONE? WHAT IS GONE?

THE DINNER! THE FINE LARGE TURKEY! THE PLUM PUDDING! EVERYTHING! IT IS ALL GONE!

AND SEE? THE WIND BLOW SO—NOT EVEN THE TRACKS REMAIN—

NOT SO BAD, SANDY! NOT SO BAD! WARM FIRE! FINE FOOD—NUFF FOR FOUR PEOPLE! JUST SHOWS YUH GUYS WITH GUNS DON'T ALWAYS WIN—WELL, HERE GOES, AND A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

ARF!

FINE THING! STICKIN' PEOPLE UP ON CHRISTMAS! THE DAY THAT'S SET ASIDE FOR PEACE!

YEAH! "PEACE. IT'S WONDERFUL! IT SURE IS, LADY—

SUCKERS THAT GO FER THAT "PEACE" BALONEY ARE SURE SET-UPS FER A SOFT TOUCH—THEY NEVER PACK A HEATER—

GIT UP TO DATE, GRAMMAW! TO DAY, IT'S FORCE AS BRINGS HOME TH PRIZES---HA! "PEACE AT ANY PRICE"—HUUH?

YEAH? LOOK! DIDJA DROP THAT?

EH? DID I DROP WHAT?

"PEACE AT ANY PRICE" HE SEZ, WIT' A SNEER! YOU BET! EVEN TO A SET OF BUSTED KNUCKLES—

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

CHRISTMAS,
HERE AND THERE.

© 1938 BY N.Y. SERVICE INC.

THE SOUTHERN CUSTOM OF CELEBRATING CHRISTMAS WITH FIRECRACKERS ORIGINATED IN EARLY AMERICAN POSSESSIONS OF FRANCE AND SPAIN ... THIS BEING A CUSTOM IN THE MOTHER LANDS.

AT WILMINGTON, N.CAROLINA, THERE IS A LIVING COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE, 75 FEET HIGH, WITH A SPREAD OF BRANCHES OF MORE THAN 100 FEET! THOUSANDS OF ORNAMENTS AND LIGHTS ADD TO ITS BEAUTY.

THERE ARE TWO SPOTS ON EARTH WHERE IT IS ALWAYS CHRISTMAS! CHRISTMAS ISLAND IN THE INDIAN OCEAN, AND CHRISTMAS ISLAND IN THE PACIFIC.

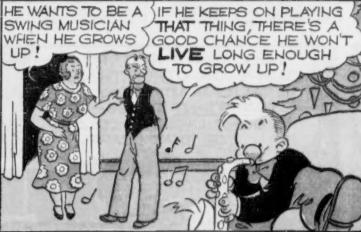

AUTHORITIES DISAGREE AS TO THE ORIGIN OF THE SPELLING "X-MAS." SOME MENTION THAT THE "X" STANDS FOR THE CROSS, SYMBOL OF CHRIST AND CHRISTIANITY.

EACH CHRISTMAS, THE KING OF ENGLAND RECEIVES A PRESENT OF "FOUR AND TWENTY WOOD COCK, BAKED IN A PIE."

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

"This

Curious

old world of ours is full of strange people; strange animals; strange facts and strange fancies. Old Mother Nature works wisely and well, but sometimes her ways are too deep, too for us to fathom. But there's a way to keep in touch with the vagaries of nature and learn the whys and wherefores of her strange ways. Daily in The Bulletin, "This Curious
